COURSE TITLE Spanish 1
DISTRICT COURSE NUMBER #0411		4-DIGIT STATE COURSE CODE (COMPLETED BY SILT) 2206
Rationale:	Spanish 1 fulfills an EDUHSD graduation requirement and is a required course for admission to most universities. The ability to communicate in a second language enables students to build a foundation for interpersonal understanding and global awareness and to build an intellectual base for further studies.
Course Description that will be in the Course Directory:	Spanish 1 develops the four skills of communication: listening, speaking, reading and writing, and explores cultures of the Spanish-speaking world. Students are provided language-use activities that enable them to function in common daily settings for which they have rehearsed; understand learned words and phrases in unfamiliar texts (oral/written) and produce learned words and phrases; deal with discrete elements of life, comprehend and produce memorized material orally and in writing; and comprehend and be understood by sympathetic Spanish speakers.
How Does this Course align with or meet State and District content standards?	Units of study parallel the World Language Content Standards for California Public Schools.

Unit Title: Language Foundations

Content Area Standards (Please identify the source): List content standards students will master in this unit.

Content 1.1 Students address discrete elements of daily life.

Communication 1.0 Students use formulaic language, 1.1 Engage in oral, written conversations, 1.4 List, identify and enumerate.

Cultures 1.0 Students use appropriate responses to rehearsed cultural situations, 1.2 Recognize similarities and differences in the target cultures and between students' own cultures, 1.3 Identify cultural borrowing.

Structures 1.0 Students use orthography, phonology to understand words and phrases in context, 1.2 Identify similarities and differences in the orthography, phonology of the languages the students know.

Settings 1.0 Students use language in highly predictable common daily settings, 1.1 Recognize age-appropriate cultural or language-use opportunities outside the classroom.

Unit Outline: A detailed descriptive summary of all topics covered in the unit. Explain what the students will learn, know and be able to do.

Spanish 1 students will be able to communicate short messages on highly predictable, everyday topics such as greetings, introductions and leave takings in the present tense. Students will be able to recognize and produce basic language foundations such as the Spanish alphabet, numbers, time, weather, calendar, and colors. They do so primarily through the use of isolated words and phrases that have been encountered, memorized and recalled.

Instructional Strategies: Indicate how the Instructional Strategies support the delivery of the curriculum and the course goals. Indicate how assignments support the Common Core State Standards.

Teachers will use direct instruction, collaborative learning, blended learning and a variety of vocabulary acquisition strategies to engage students in the recognition and production of language foundations. Some example activities may include, but are not limited to: songs, choral readings, web-based activities, videos, audio resources, realia, movement activities, drawings, games, repetition techniques and dialogues.

Assessments: Describe the Formative and Summative assessments that will be used to demonstrate learning and mastery of the standards.

Students will be assessed throughout the unit on a daily basis through formative assessments which may include but are not limited to white board activities, web-based evaluations, verbal responses, teacher observation, dialogues, quizzes, daily warm-ups and in class practice.

Students will be assessed at the end of the unit through summative assessments which may include but are not limited to: oral presentations, projects and written exams.

Interventions: Describe methods used to support students who fail to master unit Formative and Summative assessments.

Students who do not master unit formative and summative assessments will be offered a variety of opportunities to review and strengthen their understanding and production of language foundations which may include but are not limited to: opportunities to develop acquisition of vocabulary through tutoring, textbook web-based resources, teacher student conferences and pairing of struggling students with students that have shown understanding of the content of language foundations.
